

AAPSM Well Represented at the Joint Commission on Sports Medicine and Science Annual Meeting in Kansas City, MO

AAPSM Executive Director Rita Yates along with current AAPSM President Mike Donato and AAPSM Past President and Fellow Tim Dutra recently attended the Joint Commission on Sports Medicine and Science Annual Meeting held this year in Kansas City, Missouri – home of the Super Bowl Champion Kansas City Chiefs. The JCSMS was organized and is dedicated to sports medicine organizations to get to know one another on a personal level thereby making future contacts easier and more productive. The meeting is open to Executive Directors and Presidents of sports medicine organizations. The AAPSM has collaborated with members of the Joint Commission – with its most notable collaboration – Special Olympics Fit Feet. The weekend features competitive activities with various EDs and Presidents participating.
